Please join us
for a showcase of our services
in celebration of the dedication of our new premises
at the Stephenson Centre on Ann Street, Kendal.

Dear Friends,

I wish to begin by saying a sincere thank you for all the preparation made prior to my arrival. It has made the process of settling in relatively easy and straightforward. I also wish to thank you for the warm welcome from the three parishes and the wider community.

I realise I have come to parishes that are energised with activity inside and outside the church. The regular and good links with schools, homes and hospitals are precious indeed in bearing witness to the love of Jesus for people of all ages and backgrounds.

This month sees the start of Lent. Lent can be seen as a sombre season, a time for giving up something and of course people have used that discipline to their profit. But historically Lent was also a time for teaching in the church, a time when baptismal candidates were taught and prepared for baptism at Easter.

This teaching and learning aspect of Lent might also be profitable for us. Why not use Lent to read through a Gospel (Luke is the one used in most services this year), or a Christian book? There are also Lent courses which can allow you to look at deeper issues in the company of others.

Lent can be seen simply as a time of giving up, but why not also view it as a time for taking up something. Above all the most important Lenten call comes from the Lord Jesus Christ, not just for one time of the year, but the day by day challenge of discipleship: “Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.” (Luke 9 verse 23)

The Reverend Bryan Kerr

Priest-in-Charge of the Parishes of
St. Johns, Levens,
St. Peters, Heversham
and St. Thomas’, Milnthorpe

Many readers will have noticed the new signs advising that there are War Graves in Heversham churchyard.

This is an initiative of the War Graves Commission who are seeking to raise awareness of the presence of war graves in churchyards and cemeteries throughout the country. When approached, St Peter's PCC was very pleased to agree to have a sign on each gate to the churchyard.

The War Graves Commission recognise and maintain five war graves in our churchyard.

There are four of the traditional white headstones that we are used to seeing in the media and which can also be seen in war cemeteries across northern Europe and one family grave where the deceased is recognised as having died as a consequence of WW1.

The traditional headstones mark the graves of:
J Atkinson Private 6918 Friday March 22, 1918 Age 18
JB Germain Private 30825 Thursday November 14, 1918 Age 23
J Proctor Private 1958 Saturday June 29, 1918 Age 29
Jean Strickland Leading Aircraftwoman 2110240 Sunday May 7, 1944

The family grave, which lies to the north side of the church, marks the grave of:
Lieutenant Bagot, Sir Alan Desmond Sunday January 11, 1920 age 23
